3.1 SCHOOL/STAFFING. Updates & Information

- Mr. Brill shared that he continues to focus in hiring; currently we can only hire support staff and specialty staff.
 - We currently have around 20 vacancies, which include licensed and support staff.
 - Mr. Brill continues to search and advertise to fill for our additional Assistant Principal.
 - Our school continues to work with Boystown and will be promoting parenting classes from October 19 until November 6.

3.2 COUNSELING DEPARTMENT. Information

- Ms. Bunse shared information what the counseling department has done and will be doing.

- There has been two student of the month celebrations.
- An assessment was conducted to identify students who are in need on different areas. A total of 57 students were identified who needed help. The biggest response was to help with grades, second concern was attendance, and third was issues with anger, depression and other behavior concerns. Counselors will work on building different groups to help with the student needs.
- We identified 20 students with Straight A's for the first quarter.
- We will begin to work with the Magnet schools during the month of November. Students will have a chance to apply and received information in regards to the different Magnet school programs.

3.3 23-24 SSPP: Our Journey to 3 stars, 2 years

- Mr. Brill shared his plan for the Supplemental School Performance Plan (SSPP).
 - Focus in building our school culture, getting students involved in connecting with our staff, not just academic.
 - Focus in inspiring our students. Mr. Brill and Latinos in Action held an assembly to chat with our students.
 - The goal is to focus in connecting with our 30/40/30 model with LIA (Latinos in Action).
