

Pokémon Evolution

By: Alondra Molina & Omaree (Batman) VanDyke

Hey, Pokémon lovers! Did you hear about the 20 year of celebration of Pokémon? We think it's the best thing ever since doughnuts or Pokémon cards! To celebrate, we collaborated and wrote a special story (below) called "Sneek Peek" We hope all of you will love it.

Sneek Peek

It all started with Violet Rose, the one who started the whole journey between the teams normal and not-so-normal life. So- WAIT, WAIT, and WAIT! Where the heck is the Pokémon? Violet's Pokémon, Bomba, had a hard life, just like Violet. She was abandoned by her father at age 5 and her mother died at age 6, so half of her life was spent with her grandmother. She also loved Pokémon, and she loved fighting battles. Now she is waiting to duel her next opponent, Knight Tron for the Pokémon evolution championship. There is one question on her mind. Is she good enough to win the biggest challenge of her life, or will this be a disaster of a lifetime?

The fight between Violet and Alondra was very gory. Half of their Pokémon died because of their epic battle. Determined to win, Violet summoned her strongest Pokémon, Bomba. Bomba was the oldest Pokémon and Violet is the oldest Pokémon trainer. Knight Tron had no choice, so she summoned her most destructive, (yet cute) Pokémon, Ultimate Pika..

The fight went on for hours, possibly for weeks! Day after day, Violet and Knight Tron lost huge amounts of their Pokémon. Finally, one tragic blunder changed their Pokémon's lives forever. On May 10, 2018, Violet summoned her Bomba at the wrong time. However, at the same time Knight Tron summoned Ultimate Pika. Suddenly, BOOM! The combination with Bomba and Ultimate Pika was a disaster. Instead of two Pokémon, they became one! The one and only Bomba Pika! DUN DUN DUUUUUUN!

The End

Musical Arts Disney Trip

By: Donald Rooker

On May 14th Band, Orchestra, and Art students went on a trip to Disneyland. The trip was so much fun. Many of the people who went also attend the field trip last year to Six Flags. This was some of the most fun we have ever had! Our school wants us to have a fun time and be safe. When we do well in school, we can attend cool things like the Disneyland trip! We arrived here on Saturday the 14th. Then, we all got on the buses. We were at Disneyland for most of the day, then got back on the buses headed back to the school. We got back to the school on Sunday the 15th really early in the morning. Our parents met us at school and took us home. On behalf of everyone at Dell H. Robison, we are proud of you and glad you had a safe and fun trip!

DANGEROUS APPS

By: Jacob Serrato & Ever Tcligort

There are many apps that are dangerous for kids and teens. One of the apps is called Kik. Kik is a free app based texting service. What is dangerous about this app? Kids think its fine to sext on the app because their parents aren't watching them. Snapchat allows people to capture your image or your videos too. It is also inappropriate because it allows kids to post sexually explicit photos. Vine is also a dangerous app. Nasty videos pop up without you knowing and it is inappropriate. It can ruin our childhood. ChatRoulette and Omegle are dangerous because you can talk with strangers that you don't even know. Strangers can also know your information and locate you too. Tinder is another dangerous app. It makes people hook up with you. Poof is not a really dangerous but it is deceitful. It allows kids hide their apps from their parents. (Unless their parents know about the app.) If you want to remain safe, we suggest you stay away from these apps!

because it has many colors. Also, you can visit Lake Tahoe. Lake Tahoe is a place where kids and adults can have fun.

Another place is Willow Beach. Willow Beach is a huge beach where you can play in the sand and enjoy the day. It can also keep you calm!

There are many other places you can visit but these are the most interesting places are where you can learn and have family fun!
