2.0 Old Items

2.1 FINE ARTS SPONSORSHIP POSSIBILITIES. Information and Discussion.

- Ms. Ravalo shared a hard copy of our school donation letter. She also reminded the SOT about the upcoming expenses for the Fine Arts field trip to CA for each student.
 - ❖ Each student is to pay approximately $180 that will cover for transportation, the amusement park entry. All students attending have to be eligible and stay away from any discipline issues throughout the school year. The total of max students will be 100 students who can attend to this trip and must be in one of our Fine Arts Classes. Potential donors may choose to sponsor a student, or partials, or a set amount.

2.2 19-20 ATTENDANCE INCENTIVE PLAN. Information.

- Ms. Ravalo shared a copy of the Attendance Incentive Plan 2019-2020 school year. To help improve positive school behavior, this school year the PBIS (positive behavior intervention support) team will hold assembly on January 10th for all students with positive behavior (no referrals to HALO office).
- Ms. Ravalo said one of our school's goals is to improve our student attendance. Our goal is set for 90% and above. Ms. Ravalo said that student absences count against our school ratings. One way to improve our student attendance is to have incentives for our students for classes without absences.

3.0 New Items

3.1 20-21 ATTENDANCE REZONING PROPOSAL. Information.

- Ms. Ravalo presented a copy of the (Summary Focus Area M-1) 20-21 CCSD Rezoning Proposal and explained how the rezoning will affect Robison Middle School.
 - ❖ The Summary Focus Area showed the schools that will be affected in along with J.D. Smith, which will be getting a new building.
 - ❖ According to the first proposal, it is possible that we might lose some students but will not know until we receive our next school year preliminary student enrollment report.
 - ❖ The AZAC (zoning) meeting will be held during the upcoming weeks and will notify the SOT when and where the AZAC meeting will be take place.
